Albert Joseph Pickens died at 2:55 o'clock Saturday, September 21, at Norton Hospital, Louisville where he had gone for treatment. Mrs. Pickens and his adopted daughter, Mrs. E. L. Yates, and Mr. Yates were present when the end came. The remains arrived here Sunday morning for burial.

Funeral services were held at the Methodist church at 10:30 Monday morning from all over the county gathered to pay a last tribute of love and esteem to the deceased and the church, including the galleries were crowded. The funeral discourse was delivered by Rev. Robert Lear with an assistant Rev. R. T. McCallum. The funeral offerings were very beautiful and abundant. Interment followed at Maple View Cemetery.

Mr. Pickens is survived by his wife, Mrs. Jessie McConnell Pickens and adopted daughter, Mrs. E. L. Yates. He is also survived by three brothers and five sisters: John T. J. A. C. and James A. Pickens all of Louisville; Mr. A. C. Dickey, Mrs. Lula R. Dickey; Mrs. Louie Lamb, Mrs. W. L. W. and Mrs. P. C. Lamb.

The deceased was a son of A. Lamb and Jessie Lamb Pickens and was born December 24, 1867. He began life for himself as a farmer in early manhood. He always took an interest in local politics and in 1887, he was elected to the State Legislature twice. How poor did he become as James that year! He was elected Sheriff of the County and so well did he serve the people that rapidly that he was reelected without opposition. In 1890 he was appointed by the governor of Kentucky to the office of steward of the Fresh-milled Indians at Frankfort, serving it that capacity for years.

He was perhaps the man in the state who had a better acquaintance with the people of his state than has none friend and relative that did Mr. Pickens.

First CHURCH GAME TO PRINCETON

The Marion baseball team journeyed over to Princeton and lost a close game to their ball club, the score being 3 to 1 in favor of Princeton. Floyd Wheeler worked on the mound for Marion and was exceedingly hard for Princeton to compete with his of young. He allowed only three hits and caused many a Princeton player to lay down the stick.

Princeton managed to score a run in their round at bat in the third and two in the fourth after two men had been retired, errors being responsible for both times.

Prater had no trouble in connecting with Hause's tossing, getting three hits out of four times up and the Marion lone tally. After Prater received an injury Prater forced him behind the bat and right an exceptionally good game.

Hause pitched his regular game and had many of the local boys posted, allowing six hits.

Court House News

Wm. Binkley was tried in county court Thursday Sept. 20 on a charge of selling intoxicating liquor in violation of the prohibition law. After hearing the evidence returned a verdict of guilty and fixed his punishment at 30 days in jail and a fine of $100. The case was appealed to the Court and defendant was released under an appeal bond.

Clarence DeLoach was tried in county court Wednesday charged with transporting liquor. The jury returned a verdict of guilty and fixed his punishment at $100 fine and 30 days in the County Jail. The case was appealed and defendant released under a bond.

A still was discovered under a concrete bridge about one and a half miles south of town on the Princeton road by Wm. R. Westerman. Mr. R. telephoned the information to Sheriff J. T. Wright, who with a deputy went and brought it in. It is a copper still of about 25 gallon capacity and has evidently been un-used for some time. It is supposed that the owner, becoming fearful of being overtaken by the law, hid it under the bridge as the best way a valuable of getting rid of it. It is now in the Sheriff's office and has attracted considerable interest.

The drive for the Dark Tobacco organization in this county is now in full swing. Citizens of all classes have rallied to the aid of the tobacco growers and are lending them full power to organize this county before October 1. The county has been organized as to voting precincts and the local organization is well planted with the prospect of carrying up the county.

Supt. Geo. C. in addressed a large crowd of farmers at Shady Grove on Tuesday afternoon in in front of the organization pointing out the need of this organization for the farmers, the advantages it has over the old system of packing the tobacco and why it will make tobacco a better crop for the grower what his crop is worth.

TO RAISE $10,000 COMMUNITY BUILDING

The Woman's Club is putting forth every effort to raise a sufficient amount of money to get a community building, not for themselves alone but for the people of the county. For there has been a dire need of a rest room for the women who come shopping and the need has been one of deepest concern.

At the time for each entertainment a sum is taken in it is put on interest until the first payment can be made on property for a community house.

A SUMMARY OF KENTUCKY GAME LAWS

BY EDWARD H. STONE
County Attorney

Several years having come to my office seeking to know the law relating to seasons, licenses, limits, possession and sale of game in this state, therefore I give the following as a brief and convenient synopsis of the law for the benefit of the public.

Open season. Rabbits from Nov. 1 to Dec. 1. Squirrels, rabbits, rabbits may be taken with dogs or traps at any time for a person's own use on his own land, but not for sale or for sale. Game and fish commissary may be taken at open season from Dec. 1 to Dec. 31. No person under 18, ok, individual pleasure. Hunter an participant w/ turkey, swan, wood duck, mallard and whooping crane, etc.

Official Referee, Benjamin of Providence, Umpire Ross of Sturgis; Head Umpire Lamb, of Marion; Timekeeper Bell, Marion. Length of quarters 15 minutes.

THE HIGH COST OF LIVING

can be reduced if you buy IRMA BLAND goods. The same quality as nationally advertised brands at a price that you have to pay for off brands. Whole page ads in leading newspapers cost huge sum of money but adds nothing to the value of the goods.

To eliminate this extra cost we have connected ourselves with several thousand other retail merchants, known as the United Retail Merchants of America. U. R. M. A. By buying our goods together we cut out a considerable part of the cost and in so doing the consumer as good quality as could be had for a much higher price if we bought in the regular way.

We offer you: Irma corn flakes, Irma coffee Irma lye, Irma Ma and Irma spaghetti, Irma ants, Irma mashed potato, Irma meat loaf, Irma tortilla, Irma Baking soda, Irma tomato soup, Irma chicken feed, Irma cake starch, besides several other articles.

Several hundred satisfied customers at and around Marion will testify to the good qualities of these brands.

Try them if they do not make good we will. WHITLERS GROCERY
